Notice: all the warranty can be excluded once debranded by the company. Defective items are perfectly covered under the product guarantee. A: You have a G730-U00 with the coreboot /u-boot.img. You need to do some soldering. Update: If you don't have access to that chip, you need to flash it. I recommend that you invest in a USB programmer, probably one that you can buy at HD or Molex. Just flash a recovery, and then install the latest coreboot. You cannot flash your chip directly to an eMMC (SD). You have to do a full flash to an eMMC. How to Check if your Music Player

Supports Bluetooth? Bluetooth can be tricky. So complicated. And popular. And loud. Take a listen to the difference between my iProduct and my Android phone, for example: Now imagine how much louder it would be if you were listening to music on all devices around you. Oh... your iPhone, Samsung, iPod and Android device can all be Bluetooth-enabled, which means you have some options if you're a bluetooth lover.
